

Request for Direct Deposit

Complete this form if you wish to register for direct deposit. You must have an account at a financial institution that has an establishment in Canada. Your income tax refund and any other tax-related payments to which you are or may be entitled will be deposited directly into your account. You can also use this form to change information you previously provided.

You must be registered for direct deposit to

- claim the solidarity tax credit;
- apply for advance payments of the tax credit for home-support services for seniors;
- apply for advance payments of the tax credit for childcare expenses;
- apply for advance payments of any tax credits respecting the work premium (work premium, adapted work premium or supplement to the work premium [for former recipients of social assistance]);
- apply for an advance payment of the tax credit for the treatment of infertility;
- apply for an advance payment of the tax credit for the restoration of a secondary residence.

How to request direct deposit (or notify us of any changes to your information)

You can use this form to request direct deposit or to change your direct deposit information. You can also register for direct deposit online on our website at www.revenuguebec.ca.

Instructions on how to complete this form

Write only your telephone number on the detachable portion below, and then sign and date it. On the front of a blank cheque drawn from an account you hold at a financial institution that has an establishment in Canada (see the example below), write the word "VOID" along with your name and social insurance number. Send both the detachable portion of the form and the blank cheque to us in the envelope provided.

If you are unable to supply a blank cheque, fully complete the detachable portion below and send it to us in the return envelope. To complete the section about the financial institution, contact your financial institution. Be sure to enter all the digits (including initial zeroes, if any) of the branch number, the financial institution number and your account number.

If you do not have a return envelope, send the detachable portion and blank cheque (if applicable) to the following address: C. P. 3000, succursale Place-Desigrdins, Montréal (Québec) H5B 1A4.

Cancelling your registration for direct deposit

Your registration for direct deposit will remain in effect until you cancel it. You can cancel your registration in writing or by calling 1 800 267-6299.

Protection of confidential information

In compliance with the Tax Administration Act and the Act respecting Access to documents held by public bodies and the Protection of personal information, we protect your information. The only Revenu Québec employees who can access your information are those who are duly authorized and who need access as part of their work. We may use the information for the purposes of administering the laws and socio-fiscal programs for which we are responsible.

We can also use the information to conduct studies, research and surveys, and to compile statistics.

Subject to the restrictions provided for in the above-mentioned laws, we may communicate your information to a government department or agency or to a third party for specific purposes without your consent, where the information is required to administer laws or joint programs for which the department, agency or party is responsible.

Failure to provide information can have repercussions on your file and result in the refusal of your application. You may, under certain conditions, consult, obtain a copy of or correct your information.
